DESIRE

Everybody knows her name inside the perfect world but she comes to me
Music plays she'll dance alone
Through the streets and to my home she comes to me
Like so many times before
She stumbles in across my floor
To find me waiting there
To please her to the core

Is this Love, Is this Love
Gypsy, mystic, Jezebel,
I am a Fool
Is it Love, Is it Love
Everybody wants it that's what everybody needs

Desire, Desire
Everybody wants it that's what everybody needs yeah
Desire, Desire
Everybody wants it that's what everybody needs, is it Love?

She knew her way around the world
The mysteries of the east
Yeah the mysteries
Just the touch of her silky hand and my soul will be released
She releases me
I'm past the point of no return
Crossed the line and it's crash and burn tonight ,
Mmm tonight

Is it Love, Is it Love
Gypsy, mystic, Jezebel,
I am a Fool

Desire, Desire
Everybody wants it that's what everybody needs X3

Desire, Desire
Everybody wants it that's what everybody needs

Desire, Desire
Everybody wants it that's what everybody needs

MALIBU

If God had a house, he would live in Malibu
Seein' the sun go down, with a fine red wine

Walkin' on a beach, where the heat is on
See the fallin angels there, in the warming sun

As the shadows gettin' longer
Before the darkness of the night
The feeling's gettin' stronger
The moon's the only light

If God had a house, he would live in Malibu
Seein' the sun go down, ain't no feeling blue
If God had a house, he would live in Malibu
Where the stars shine so bright, as dreams come true

As the morning breaks on, and memories fade away
Then you wanna stay and you wanna play

I don't wanna miss a thing,
The world goes round n' round
And I wanna sing about the love, that I found

As the shadows gettin' longer
Before the darkness of the night
The feeling's gettin' stronger
The moon's the only light

If God had a house, he would live in Malibu
Lookin' at the sun go down, there ain't no feeling blue
If God had a house, he would live in Malibu
Where the stars shine so bright, as dreams come true

HOLLYWOOD HILLS

Hard as I try
To forget you
I can still feel the weight on my heart

So alone
I try to go on
But I'm not sure I can do this on my own

But I'm looking for some kind of closure
Where the stars in the sky shine on me
And the darkness of the night will be over
On the day that my heart will be free

See the Hollywood Hills on fire
The smoke rising high in the sky
See the Hollywood Hills on fire
And I'm starting to feel so alive
There's a heat on my skin
But it doesn't seem to burn
Tell me why?

Some kind of hell
And I'm right in it
But people they don't seem to care

As I look
In the eyes of a stranger
And It's like there is nobody there

Need to find a new kind of feeling
Cos the stars in the sky will always shine
And the darkness of the night will soon be over what is left will be what's truly mine

See the Hollywood Hills on fire
See the smoke rising high in the sky
See the Hollywood Hills on fire
And I'm starting to feel so alive

Every time I remember when, I remember feeling so free Every time I remember then, I remember then

See the Hollywood Hills on fire
The smoke rising high in the sky
See the Hollywood Hills on fire
And I'm starting to feel so alive

See the Hollywood Hills on fire
The smoke rising high in the sky
See the Hollywood Hills on fire
And I'm starting to feel so alive

I DON'T WANNA LIVE FOREVER

When we were young, we thought we had it all worked out
Days rolled by easy, I thought that we would rule the world
So many years have passed since you walked out my life
Now I look in the mirror at the lines drawn on my face

When I look at what I've done, and what I left undone I was losing everything, when I was losing you there's nothing coming through, cos I'm not coming home to you
I'm not coming home to you

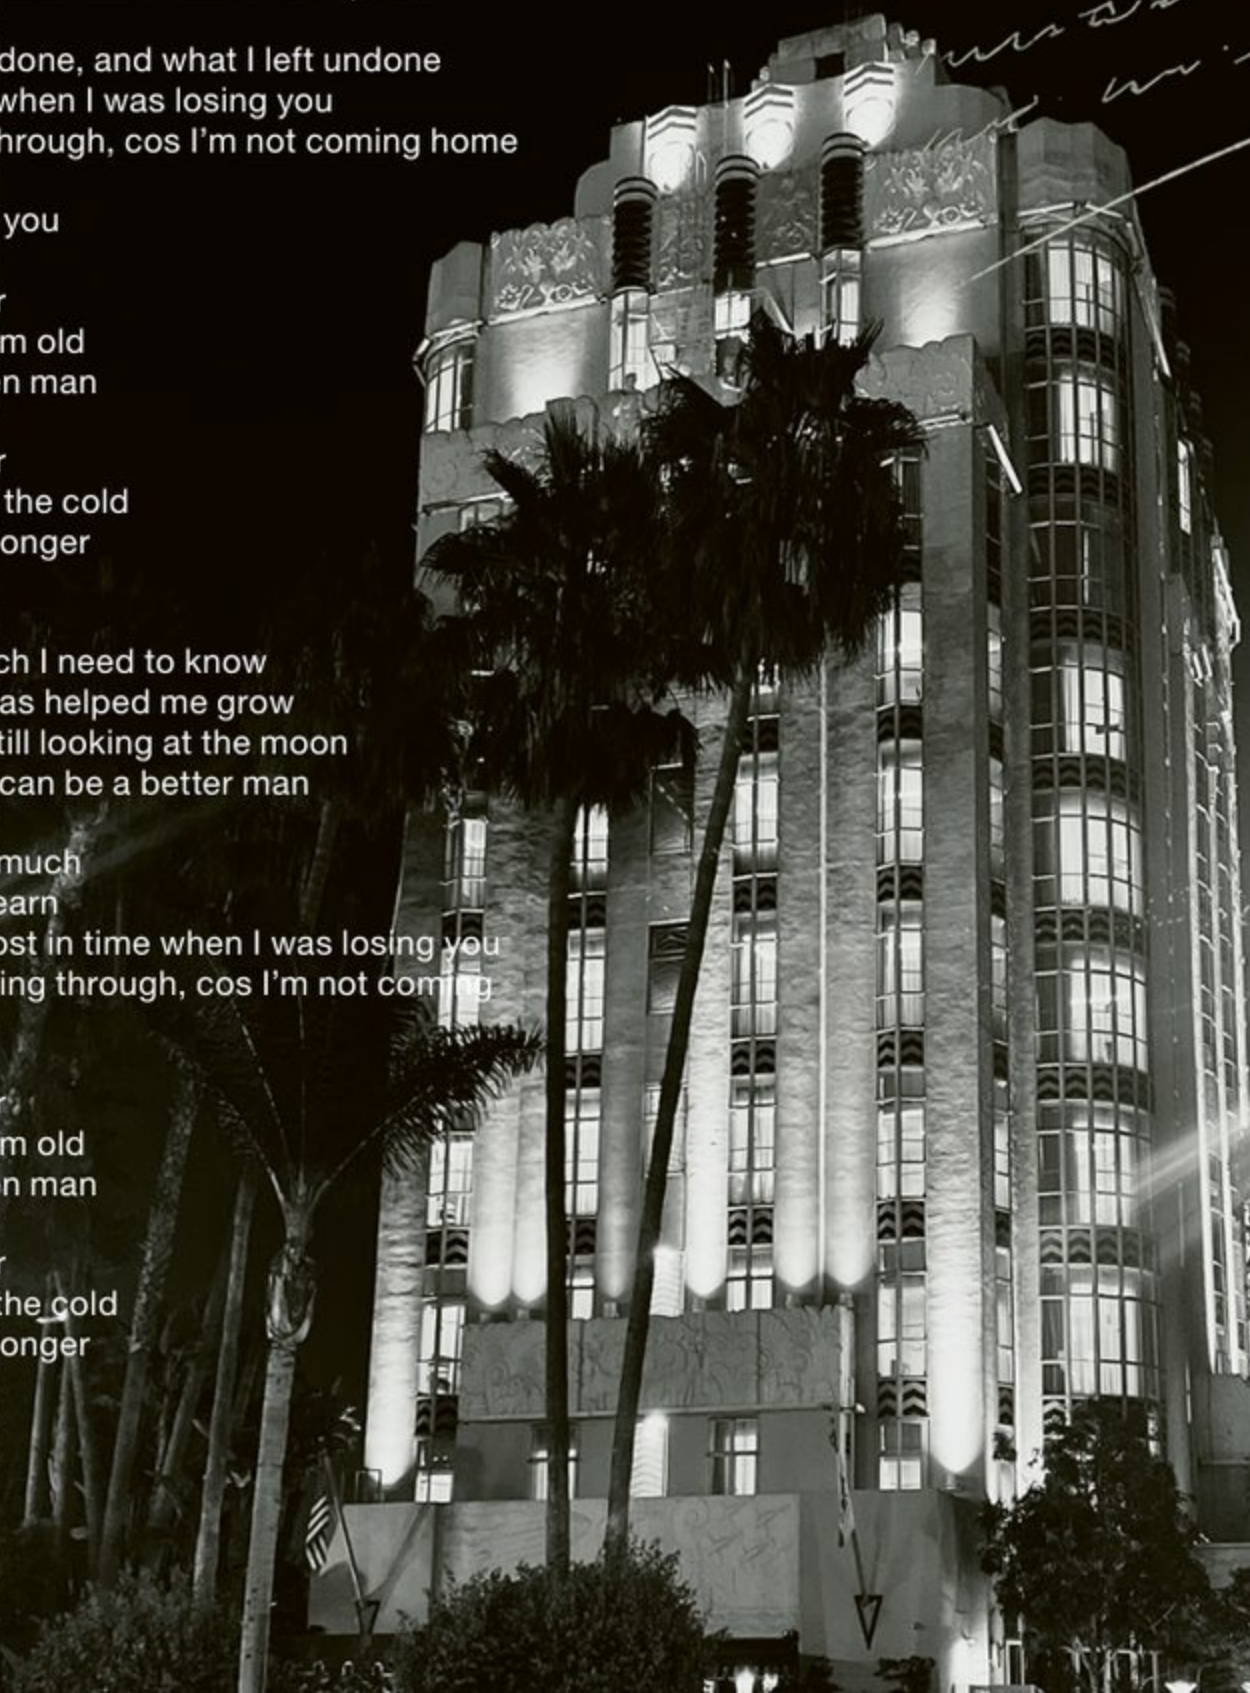

I don't wanna live forever
But I wanna live before I'm old
I don't wanna be a broken man
Don't wanna die alone
I don't wanna live forever
I'm standing out there in the cold
Say you'll stay a minute longer
Don't let me die alone

Time is rolling by, so much I need to know
And all this time alone, has helped me grow
Nothing ever changes, still looking at the moon
But I'm willing to learn, I can be a better man

It seems I've learned so much
So much there's still to learn
But the one thing that I lost in time when I was losing you And there's nothing coming through, cos I'm not coming home to you

I don't wanna live forever
But I wanna live before I'm old
I don't wanna be a broken man
Don't wanna die alone
I don't wanna live forever
I'm standing out here in the cold
Say you'll stay a minute longer
Don't let me die alone

Look down never seen myself like this before

HIGHER & HIGHER

Strange times like these Feels like there is something gotta break
See me holding back the tears
Cos I just can't bear to make the same mistakes

Don't be afraid, don't cry, please just listen
To all the songs that you can hear me singing
And I know we will find a place
A place that's gonna get us through the night

The night

We'll fly higher and higher
My love
You'll take me higher and higher
With love
I'm by your side, don't you forget
So take my hand let's fly away
Higher and higher with love

Once I heard you say
That in your life a dream could have no place
Now I know that that's not true
At anytime a dream might come to you

And now my dream's fulfilled, I can't forget
The time when all I had was my regrets everything's gonna be alright we can make it through the longest night

The night

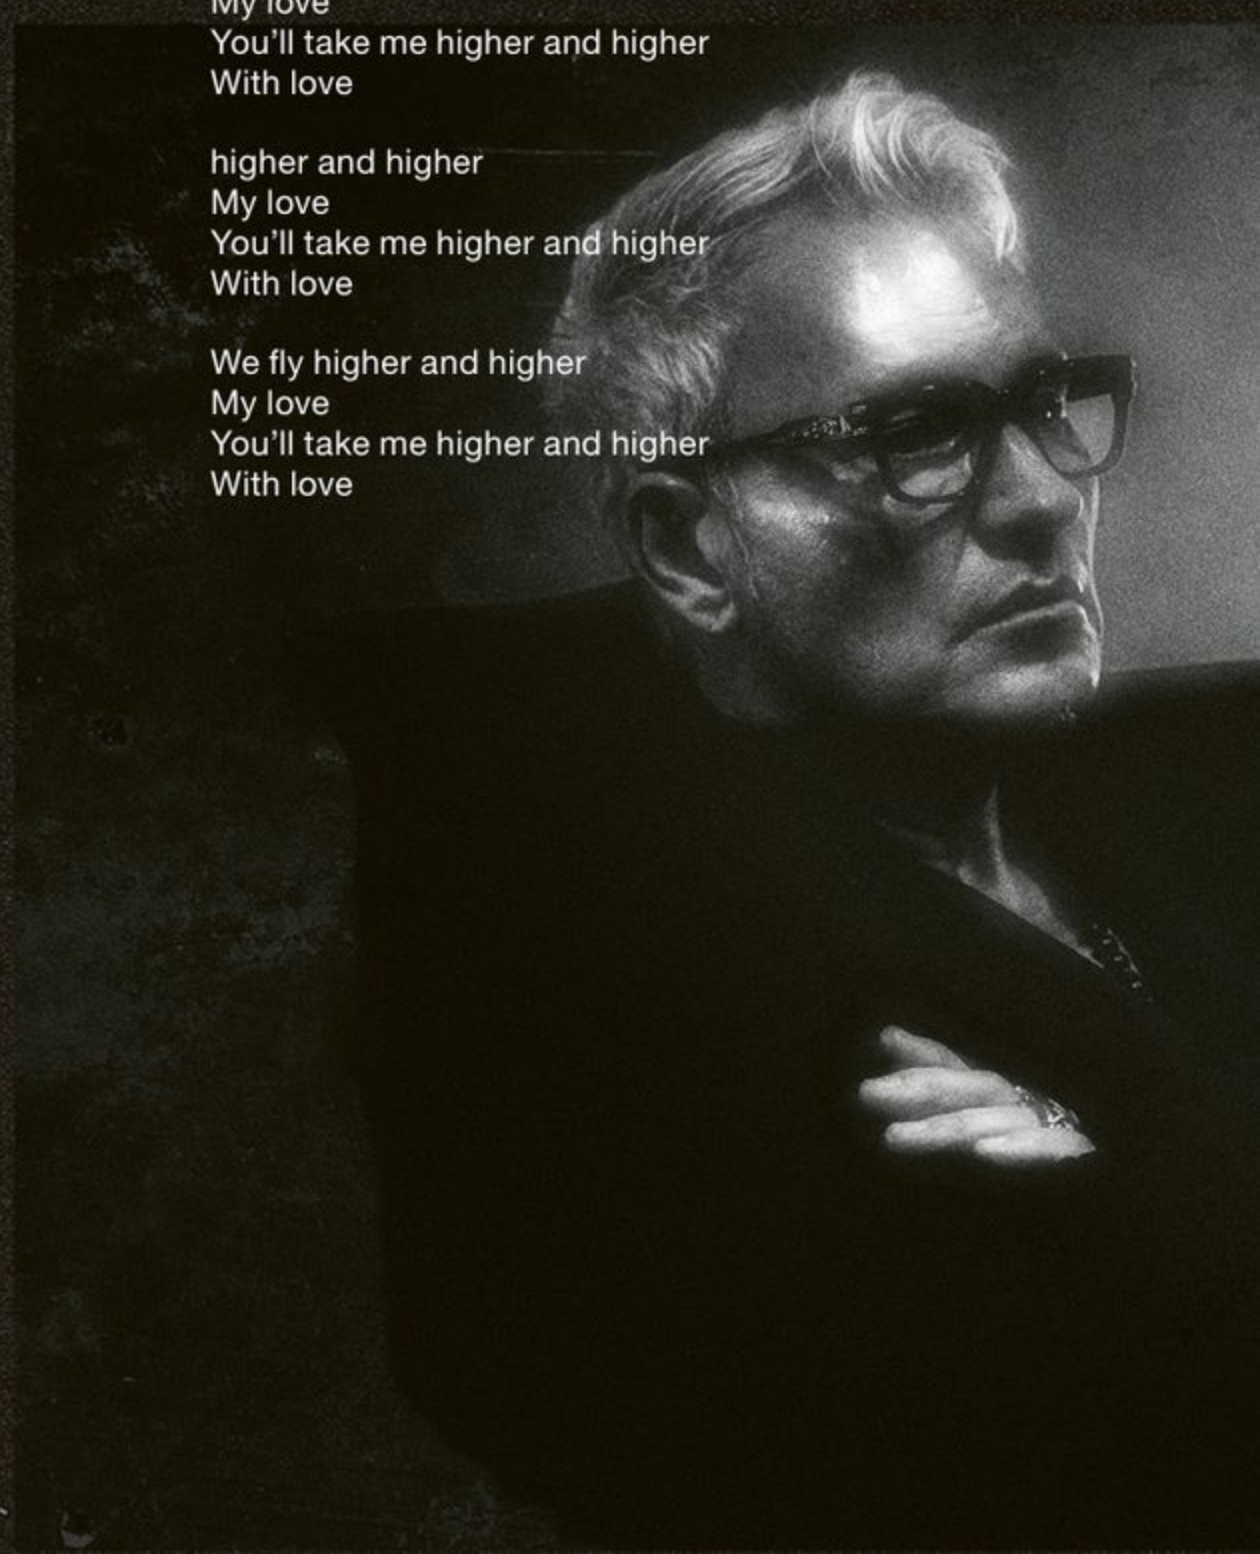

And we'll fly higher and higher
My love
You'll take me higher and higher
With love
I'm by your side, don't you forget
So take my hand let's fly away
Higher and higher with love

Now I'm feeling lost for words
But I know that your love will get me through
And when I'm standing next to you
Everything is fine
You know you're blowing my mind

higher and higher
My love
You'll take me higher and higher
With love

higher and higher
My love
You'll take me higher and higher
With love

We fly higher and higher
My love
You'll take me higher and higher
With love

HELP ME

Whatever gets me trough the night, is it wrong or is it right
I can't stand without it now, cause it makes me running round
I'm lost inside my head, can't remember what you said
And the sky is falling down, i am laying on the ground

Hey help me trough the day help me throught the night
You're the only way and that's allright
Hey help me trough the day help me throught the night
You're the only way and that's allright

I don't need your good advice, you already told me twice
If you wanna lift me up, bring it to me bring it now
I'm lost inside my head, can't remember what you said
And the sky is falling down, i am laying on the ground

Hey help me trough the day help me throught the night
You're the only way and that's allright
Hey help me trough the day help me throught the night
You're the only way and that's allright

Look around and you can see, love is not the reality

Hey help me trough the day help me throught the night
You're the only way and that's allright
Hey help me trough the day help me throught the night
You're the only way and that's allright

BELIEVER

It was Your Angel Face that made,
Made me believe in you, gave me faith in a better place

It was your Angel smile that opened up the sky
It was your touch and the love you gave with that sweet embrace

Now I'm down,
I'm down and out
I can see behind your eyes
There's a darkness you can't hide away
Now I know I gotta leave

After all your lies, don't wanna believe it anymore
After all the lies I'm losing faith more and more

I really tried so hard to see What all my friends had said but I was blinded by your light

Now I'm in despair I think I need some help
I've fallen on the floor, I can't take it anymore

Now I'm down,
I'm down and out
can hear behind your words
There's a truth I know you cannot speak
And I know I gotta leave

After all your lies I don't wanna believe it anymore
After all the lies I've lost the faith I had before

Don't wanna dance
Just wanna scream
How can you tell me now
That you believe in love

After all your lies I don't wanna believe it anymore
After all the lies I've lost the faith I had before

MY BROTHER'S CHILD

Every year it seemed so clear, didn't need to raise a family livin' independent
But the years have flown, and time crept up on me
Got me feelin' stranded

Then my brother came to me, discretely
Sayin' two will soon be three, completely
Now he's all pride and smiles, believe me
Standin' here at my front door,
With his little son...

My brothers child - the sweetheart of the family
My brothers child - smiling' up so peacefully
My brothers child - a shinning light for you and me
My brothers child - set a landslide off inside of me

Every time I see the boy, I feel a love completely new I'm wrapped around his finger
He's got me mesmerised, and I can't seem to explain
I guess I'll never be the same

But there is no greater wonder, believe me
The wonder of new life, completely
It goes deeper down inside, within me
And it fills your heart with joy, every night and day...

My brothers child - the sweetheart of the family
My brothers child - smiling' up so peacefully
My brothers child - a shinning light for you and me
My brothers child - set a landslide off inside of me

Ain't it crazy, how we grow too blind to see How amazing, a newborn child can be,
Set me free babe

FLYING OUT

Spent the evening home hangin' out low n' lazy 62 channels driving me insane
Figured that some food could ease the the tension maybe Paid a visit to the fridge but it let me down

So I packed my bags and dropped in on my lady Say goodbye honey I'm off to wine and dine

Flying out, out to fill my belly
Flying out, out to feed my brain

Touched down in Rome to see my friend Giovanni
Gotta say he really makes the best lasagne in town
Then I'll get back on the plane and make my way to Bombay To scold my mouth where the curry's hot and sound pay a visit to the sushi country

And wash it down with lukewarm sake wine yeah

Flying out, out to fill my belly
Flying out, out to feed my brain
Flying out, out to feel my belly
Flying out, out to feel my brain

Flying out, out to fill my belly
Flying out, out to feed my brain
Flying out, out to feel my belly
Flying out, out to feel my brain

SAY WHAT YOU SAY

Wanna tell you everything
Everything that's on my mind
All my secrets
All I left behind

I wanna know your secrets too know that you can trust me, and I promise I will always be around

You can shout it out or scream it
Or whisper in my ear there's nothing you can say that would break me
Just know that I am always by your side

Say what you say what you're saying
Just stay for the night
Show me the things you've been hiding
I'll make it alright
Say what you say what you're saying
Just stay for the night
I'll be there whenever you need me
And make it alright

And it's always gonna be that way
Say that you'll stay

Tell me why your guard is up promise I won't interrupt
All your secrets
All you left behind

Your silence is the loudest thing
The mystery is killing me
Just open up the door and let me in

Don't wanna see you crying
Just look me in the eyes
I'm gonna be your man until the end of time
And I will always be there by your side

Say what you say what you're saying
Just stay for the night
Show me the things you've been hiding
I'll make it alright
Say what you say you are saying
Just stay for the night
I'll be there whenever you need me
And make it alright

And it's always gonna be that way
Say that you'll stay

So dry your eyes
Baby come inside
What you gonna do with your demons now
Leave the past all behind, look for something more I'll be right here waiting at your door waiting at your door

Say what you say what you're saying
Just stay for the night
Show me the things you've been hiding
I'll make it alright
Say what you say you are saying
Just stay for the night
I'll be there whenever you need me
And make it alright

And it's always gonna be that way
Say that you'll stay

CRYIN' FOR LOVE

Walking Down the streets of Paris
On a rainy afternoon
Watching the world passing me by

Suddenly we're in September
A year with nothing to remember
Nothing that I can bring to mind

I can't turn back the hands of time
No matter how hard I seem to try
What's done is done I can draw the line
But she can never say goodbye

She is crying for love, crying for love
But I can't make it turn around
She's still crying for love, dying for love
Her love lies bleeding on the ground

I can ask for her forgiveness
But I can't change the way I feel There's no faking something real

And for her there is no mercy
She can see it in my eyes
No way to open what is closed

I can't turn back the hands of time
No matter how hard I seem to try
What's done is done, I can draw the line
But she can never say goodbye

She is crying for love, crying for love
But I can't make it turn around
She's still crying for love, dying for love
Her love lies bleeding on the ground

Standing at the Post des Artes
As the rain begins to fall
Some place else the sky is blue
And through it all hope is coming through

She is crying for love, crying for love
But I can't make it turn around

She is crying for love, crying for love
But I can't make it turn around
She's still crying for love, dying for love
Her love lies bleeding on the ground

Dance is my Freedom

ICE IS BROKEN

Lose my Breath
When you're by my side
Feels like spring
When trees are in bloom
And the dark of night
Has turned to light

And I'm losing my control
There's no way that I can hide how the feeling's grow inside
Just like that I fell in love
Yesterday is gone
A brand new start

Now the ice is broken
So much left unspoken
But the lines of love will see us through
And now my heart is melting
While the sun is setting
feels like everything's in front of me
Now the ice is broken
I am set free

And the time
Is flying by Come with me you'll get to see
Just how much
You mean to me

Cause this moment feels so true
So much more to me and you
It's written in the stars
It feels like I am brand new don't want for nothing more
Just hold me now

Now the ice is broken
So much left unspoken
But the lines of love will see us through
And now my heart is melting
While the sun is setting
feels like everything's in front of me
Now the ice is broken
I am set free

My love, I don't want to let go of you Till the night reveals its secrets to the sky there's not even a shade of doubt inside my mind
I just saw you and knew I had to try
And this time I just feel like fate is on my side
Time to roll the dice

Now the ice is broken
So much left unspoken
But the lines of love will see us through
When we hold each other
I am set free

Now the ice is broken
So much left unspoken
But the lines of love will see us through
Now the ice is broken
I am set free
